WORLD FEDERALIST CHALLENGES STUDENTS

"World Unity", was the topic of Dr. Vernon Nash, who spoke at a special student body assembly on Oct. 23.

He spoke of world affairs and made a stirring appeal for a strong world organization in order to have a lasting peace. However, he considers the San Francisco Conference a failure in two ways. First because it depends on promises only, and secondly, it concentrates the responsibility on the larger more powerful nations. The people of the world can get lasting peace, he said, only if they are willing to go under one sovereign.

Dr. Nash, who also spoke to the Idaho Knife and Fork club on Oct. 1, was a Rhodes scholar from Missouri in 1916. He served with the British army in India and East Africa from 1917 to 1918. He founded the first school of journalism in Asia at Yenching University, Peiping, China in 1924.

Dr. Nash is promoting an organization called the World Federalists. This organization's purpose is to "urge governments to hold a representative international conference to frame a constitution under which all willing peoples can unite in a Federal World Government." Anyone interested in joining this organization is urged to address inquiries to World Federalists, 296 28th, New York 16, New York.

PAUL PIERSON SPEAKS AT PRESS CLUB MEET

Guest speaker at the Press Club meeting Wednesday noon was Mr. Paul Pierson from the Idaho Printcrafters, who spoke on the history of paper and the various processes of paper making.

Mr. Pierson stated that paper was invented in China in 105 A. D. and that although the first printing job has been attributed to the Chinese people, it was really in Japan that the first job was successful. Having visited many paper mills throughout the country, Mr. Pierson has become acquainted with the numerous materials used in making paper and with the many methods used in this process. He said that the large number of trees in the northwest accounts for the paper movement to this section of the country.

The Dramatic Club, Alpha Mu Omega, will hold a Halloween costume dance next Wednesday, according to Sue Murphy, general chairman of the affair. Prizes will be awarded for the best costumes, but it will not be necessary to be in full costume to attend. The dance will begin at 7:30 o'clock and will be held in the Student Union.

Loretta Martindale is in charge of the floorshow and is assisted by Judy Rose and Doris Craven.

Refreshments will be handled by Arlene Emory, while Maxine Cummings, Bill Onweiler and Sherm Coffin are in charge of the decorations. Advertising is under the direction of Fred Griffin and Betty Jean Feeney.

Gross and Wilson Win Class Office

Others filling the freshman class offices include Darel Thiel, vice-president; Marjorie Jordan, secretary; Margaret Adkins, treasurer; and Clifford Smith and Mary McLeod, representatives.

DEAN MATHEWS WILL GO TO VETERANS MEET

Dean Conan Mathews will leave soon to represent Boise Junior College at a conference sponsored by the Veterans Administration, which will be held at the University of Utah at Salt Lake City from October 31 to November 8.

The entire Northwest area will be represented at this meeting, which is for the purpose of giving specialized training to veterans' councillors.

GET ACQUAINTED WITH EVERYBODY

Now that you've been here a few weeks, how do you like it?

College, we mean.

Everybody seems to be having a good time; lots of laughing; lots of friendships springing up all over the place; parties, dances, good times.

College life is beginning to feel like normal peace times again; classes, bull sessions, exams not coming up for awhile yet. Heck, we've been through a war and we want a good time as well as an education that is going to be worth something to us.

Hence, we won't sound off the usual old warning here about hitting the books, you lugs, exams are gonna get you, etc. etc.

And another thing—is there anybody here who hasn't got well acquainted yet, who isn't one of us? Once in awhile, you know, some very fine person may experience difficulty in getting started making friends, getting the feel of being at home here. Such a person might conceivably build a shell around himself if the difficulty continues too long. That wouldn't be good.

Let's be sure that EVERYBODY at B. J. C. is well-adjusted and has friends, and is making more friends.

Yes, EVERYBODY.

It might be a good idea if some official or organization took the responsibility of looking into this matter.

Orchids and Onions

Onions to those students that have that bad habit throwing their cigarette butts on the Student Union floors instead of in the cans that are there for that purpose.

Orchids to the general student body for their splendid attention during the assemblies and their hearty applause.

A nice tearfilled onion to those students who did not attend the lecture of Dr. Nash; you missed a good talk.

Onions to the students and faculty that insist on leaving the general office door open.

Mac's Madness

I really expected to see "longies" and ear flaps every morning this week, but I guess I was the only one that has forsaken "beauty" for warmth . . . Gee, but those red woolies are warm!

The only difference seemed to be the absence of prints and the profusion of sweaters and wool dresses, not to mention some people who have SUITS!!

A day or two before most people decided to wear something on their feet besides shoes. I noticed Gila Overholster twinkling gayly with a tiny gold ankle-bracelet. "Course the brown checked cardigan suit looked nice, too, and also, but 'twas the "anklet" that caught most people's eyes!

Speaking of "eye-catchers" we thy Humphrey in a black jacket might mention a few such as Doro and checked skirt . . . "collegiate"

. . . and Maxine Gross in an oh so pale green sweater and plaid skirt (also, oh so pale-green, here and there) And have you been to the Union lately? (Silly question.) Anyway on one of my infrequent jaunts to the place I saw Virginia Kohout looking "extra" blonde and petite in a pale, purple plaid wool dress (Oh "pale, purple plaid!" how do I do these things? Don't answer!)

Lt. Browne wants me to mention his long curly locks! O. K. "Long curly locks". Five cents, please.

(This is certainly a progressive business, I charge five cents per name per paper. Office hours from 8 to 8, no credit! AND I hope I mention the right things!)

The boy to be my sweetheart,
Both handsome and dumb must be,

Handsome, so I'll love him,
Dumb, so he'll love me.

Gazing Into The 8-Ball

Have you heard "Panle at the Pool" by Terry (The Pipe) Kelly . . . It all happened when he decided to check out one of the girls' swimming classes . . . and it didn't take the girls long to check out. We have dedicated the whole week to finding out where Sally Belt got that bruise on her chin . . . but after looking to see if anyone had a beard we are still at a loss . . . maybe she ran into a door . . . Grant Dean finally got his wish . . . his is now a full fledged member of the 9:00 girls gym class . . . no kidding, come down and see him sometime . . .

"The Lights Were Low" seemed to be the theme of the Friday night dance, Ed Hoffmann (of all people) was complaining . . . Some those who didn't look as though they were complaining were . . . Kenny Chilton and Dorothy McRitchie . . . Merle Collins and Marty Wilson . . . Bob Bush and Mary Helen Rounds . . . and Bud Bettemner and Maxine Sticknoth (who incidentally were being very fancy) . . . Jack Brown who recently returned from Wake Island makes an attractive addition to B. J. C.'s male population (he plays bridge, too, girls).

Would somebody please set Mary Kinney straight? . . . She wants to know what makes a kiss passionate????

From COACH WARNER

Many questions have been asked and much discussion has been held concerning the closing of the football season. Very few questions have been directed to me personally and I wasn't asked to sit in on any of the discussions, but I will attempt to answer the question "Why Was Football Stopped?"

It became evident that the players' interest in football was decreasing rapidly as the prospects of games disappeared and arrived almost at the zero point on Monday, October 15th, when only five players appeared for practice, and it wasn't much better when only 11 were out the next night.

Our scrimmage game on Thursday October 11, showed that while some progress had been made we were still at least two weeks from being ready to play a full game.

No one can be blamed for the losing of interest in the practicing for only one game—on the other hand it takes almost as much work to prepare for one game as a full season of nine or ten games.

Injuries are always the biggest worry and they decrease as the condition of the players gets better, so that one game is always dangerous for serious injuries, even when the players are in good condition.

I am sorry the season ended in such disappointing way and can only hope we have all derived some benefit from it.

We are now attempting to get a full basketball schedule and can only hope that the school spirit gets behind the basketball as it got back of the football team.

WOMEN AT BAT

By EILEEN MORRIS

The W. A. A. initiation was the big event in girls sports this week. Gail Coffin and Thelma Stewart and Eileen Morris were in charge of the affair and with the able help of the old members and of course the new members the initiation was a big success.

The people who were initiated came creeping into the gym at 4:00 o'clock on Wednesday and with scared looks on their faces asked if they would get their hair messed up. It seems that several of the girls had dates for the showing of Rebecca that same evening, and they wanted to look their best. Well who could look their best with red noses? You'd be surprised how sore your nose can get by pushing a peanut up and down the gym floor with your nose. We have some excellent "nosers".

After the peanut race everyone was given a slip of paper on which was written some stunt for the holder to do. The next fifteen minutes were spent in a hilarious hubbub. It looked like an anthill with the pledges doing all sorts of foolish stunts.

If you ever want to please any member of the W. A. A. just give them a big bowl of cold mashed potatoes. They love 'em.

After the mess was cleaned up in the gym the group retired to the Union where they were served a Chile Supper and the new members were legally sworn in as members of the Women's Athletic

GIRLS ASSEMBLY HELD THURSDAY

Members of the A. W. Council were sponsors of Thursday's assembly for all B. J. C. girls. The program consisted of a violin solo by Stella Margaret Gorton, a novelty number by Barbara Fraser and Judith Ward, a piano solo by Margaret Adkins, and a talk called "What's in a Date" by Mrs. Burke.

Elvira Chaney was chairman of the assembly, and council members were her committee.

The A. W. Council is planning a vaudeville show for January and the Sweetheart's Ball in February.

Association. Everyone looked a little worse for the wear and tear of the evening but they reported a good time and were glad the initiation was over.

The stunt for the coed ball is in charge of Gail Coffin and Dolores Hochstrasser and they have chosen a stunt and are hard at work on the production of it. They hope to have a good turn out from the college.

This ends up the news part of women's sports for this time so until next weeks column on Women at Bat the Author of the column would appreciate any news from one of the gym classes.
